1. Things that are
_______________
   a. Amount of space
   b. Stated purpose
   c. Order
   d. Movement from lesser to greater
2. Things that are
_______________
   a. Words
   b. Characters
   c. Incidents
   d. Patterns
3. Things that are
_______________
   a. Ideas
4. Things that are
_______________
   a. Similes
   b. Metaphors
   c. Other Scriptures
5. Things that are
_______________
   a. Contrasting conjunctions
   b. Negative metaphors
6. Things that are
_______________
   a. What does the passage tell you about reality?
   b. What aspects of the text resonate with your experience?
   c. Look for principles that can be derived from the text.

“You could spend hours paging through the Word, but it will be a complete waste of time if you don’t know what you’re looking for.”

Homework Assignment:
1. Read background information on Jude from soniclight.com or a good Study-Bible
2. Read the book of Jude.
4. Record 15-20 observations on Jude 1-2
Creating a Chart

1. Give a title to each paragraph, section and even book.
2. Look for relationships between paragraphs and sections. What is the chart all about? How will you be able to use it?
3. Keep your charts simple. You can always add detail. The challenge is to trim away the clutter. What should take priority? What is the big idea? What structure needs to be shown? What material do you need at a glance?
4. If your chart has too much material, make several charts.
5. Be creative in your charts. Draw illustrations or symbols. Make it work for you.
6. Revise your charts in light of your study. No chart can summarize everything. As you continue to study a passage, you’ll gain new insights that should cause you to revise or even redo your chart. Remember, charts are a means to an end, not an end in themselves. They are useful to the extent that they accurately represent what is in the biblical text.

Studying a Section

1. Read entire section
2. Give a title to each paragraph
3. Look for relationships between paragraphs in each section.
4. Look for relationship between each section and the book
5. State the main point of each section (as short as possible).
6. Keep a list of observations or record them in your Bible using brief descriptive words.
7. Study the persons and places mentioned to throw light on the meaning of the text.
8. Keep a list of unanswered questions for further study.
9. Ask yourself: What practical issue does this address, and how does this change the way I live?
10. Share results of your study with someone else.

Homework Assignment:
1. Read the book of Jude
3. Record 15-20 observations on Jude 3-4.
4. Make a chart of the book of Jude following the above instruction.