FREE CHURCH

Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God

Weekly Bulletin
11th November 2018

Garrabost Free Church welcomes you to our services today.

If you are a visitor or unfamiliar with our services, we use the English Standard Version of the Bible in our English services. Psalm books (Sing Psalms with Scottish Psalter) and Bibles are available in the entrance hall.

Our practice at all English services is to stand for singing and sit for prayers.

Safeguarding
The Free Church of Scotland has a Christian care for the welfare of each individual and seeks to make the Church a safe place for all. In particular, the Church seeks to protect and safeguard all those who are especially vulnerable, both children and vulnerable adults, with whom it comes into contact through its activities and services. The Church seeks to safeguard these vulnerable groups through its congregations, committees and advisers and, where appropriate, in cooperation with the statutory agencies, police and social services. Over the next couple of months, Garrabost congregation plan to obtain PVG registrations for all office bearers and anyone else who works with young people and vulnerable adults on behalf of the congregation. Please note that any who have undertaken a PVG check through the Free Church from 2011 onwards will not be required to undertake a new one. Mr Heiko Rank is the Safeguarding Coordinator for the congregation and he will have application forms and information available for those who require it.
