Weekly Bulletin
22nd April 2018

Garrabost Free Church welcomes you to our services today.

If you are a visitor or unfamiliar with our services, we use the English Standard Version of the Bible in our English services. Psalm books (Sing Psalms with Scottish Psalter) and Bibles are available in the entrance hall.

Our practice at all English services is to stand for singing and sit for prayers.

Bob Akroyd is due to be the speaker and his title is “ This Is Us ” and he hopes to cover the following three questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What do we believe as Christians regarding relationships? 2. How do we put our faith into practice? 3. How do we engage with people who think differently or act differently from us? Please remember to pray for our young people.
Women for Mission Annual Event
The 12 th WFM annual event will be held in the Cabarfeidh Hotel on Friday 8 nd June, The speaker will be Moira McCarrell, who has visited Rwanda and Malawi with the Scottish Bible Society. A limited number of booking forms are available today. Please do not take a booking form unless you intend to go to the event.
Soup and Pudding lunch in aid of Hejce Bible Camp, Hungary
A Soup and Pudding fundraiser event will take place from 12-2pm next Saturday, the 28th of April in the M A M Hall at Kenneth Street, Stornoway. All proceeds will go towards the running of the Hejce English Bible Camp in Hungary . Hejce (height-zeh) is one of the longest running Eastern Europe for Christ (EEFC) camps and has always had strong links with the Scottish Church. As EEFC is closing down, the camp is now being run independently in the interim as it looks for a new parent organisation. It is always very well attended and the young people get a lot of Biblical input which they are very responsive to, and it would be a real shame if the camp wasn't able to continue running. Please let your people know about this fundraiser and ask them to remember the work in their prayers.
Vacancy
We have now heard many of the preachers which were suggested by you towards the end of last year although, as you know, there are a few more still to be heard. We will then hopefully have a clearer idea what our and God's will is for the congregation. We will therefore, God Willing, be having a congregational meeting soon to prepare for the next step of our journey. Please pray for guidance as we seek the mind of God in choosing someone to be the first minister of Garrabost Free Church and that He would give us a ‘ shepherd after His own heart to lead us with knowledge and understanding ’.
